God's Love for Us - Arch Book

Todd A. Peperkorn

Summary

Teach the story of Jesus' death and resurrection in this illustrated children's book, God's Love for Us, which can be used as a component of the 2026 Lent theme of products or as a stand-alone children's book in the Arch Book series.

Like each book in the Arch Books series, God's Love for Us includes a letter at the end of the book that helps parents put the story into biblical context and lead a discussion with their child.

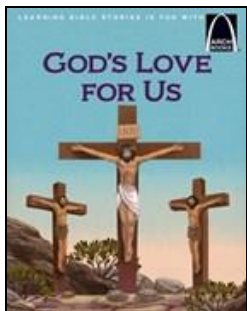

Based on Mark 15:6-16-7.

2026 Lent Theme: God's Love for Us

The series theme, God's Love For Us, is based on the hymn "O Love, How Deep" (Lutheran Service Book 544). The love of Christ surpasses all knowledge, yet it is through this love that we are filled with the fullness of God (Ephesians 3:19). The hymn "O Love, How Deep," drawn from the Devotio moderna movement of the fifteenth century, opens for us a way of meditating on the life and death and life again of our Lord Jesus Christ. It connects us to how Martin Luther and many others saw the life of God, especially through the repetition of the phrase "For us."

Poems and Prayers of Hope

Olson, Tanner

Summary

Continue . . .

As Christians, we continue through hardships, through difficulties, through points where it felt like there was no hope. And, we continue through the ordinary, too: through the morning routines, through the rush-hour traffic, through Sunday services, through late-night prayers.

This is poetry for the ordinary. For day-to-day faith.

In Continue: Poems and Prayers of Hope, author Tanner Olson examines what it means to be ordinary in the faith. To take one step forward in simple ways: going to the grocery store, making dinner, watching TV.

Being Christian doesn't always mean giant leaps and brave adventures. Sometimes, it just means being an ordinary person, continuing in your ordinary day.

God Loves Moms

Hergenrader, Christina

Summary

The women we read about in the Bible were just regular women. Just like us, they had the same insecurities and vulnerabilities that we all feel.

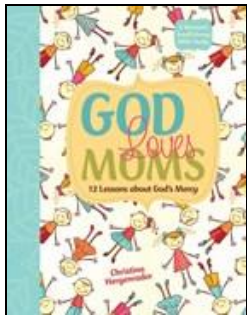

God Loves Moms is a 12-session Bible study that digs deep into the stories of 13 biblical women for a fresh look at how God reveals His grace through Christ for you. Each session includes a short narrative about a typical modern mom's life and a look at a biblical woman's faith story to show how she serves as an example of God's love. Questions encourage the reader to explore pertinent passages and reflect on their meaning for her.

The lessons look to Eve, Sarah, Hagar, Rebekah, Jochebed, Ruth, Hannah, Eunice and Lois, Bathsheba, Mary, Elizabeth, and the widow of Nain for inspiration.

Written in an inviting, friendly tone, this study is for mothers of all ages.
